The hotel offers 51 individually designed luxury rooms and suites, some with their own balcony and views across the Thames. Huge windows frame the captivating scenery. Choose from traditional country house or contemporary style.

There are three dining options where you can sample the finest British dishes created from fresh, seasonal produce all given a magical twist by the talented hands of Executive Head Chef Billy Reid. Choose from the Oak Room, the Orangery or The Terrace.

And to complement your stay, step into a wonderful world of relaxation at Spa Illuminata Danesfield House for the perfect spa break. With an indoor pool, Jacuzzi, poolside steam room and sauna and a wide range of treatments, you'll be tempted into some indulgent pampering.

The history and the gardens...

The house is built on a site that has been a settlement through the ages and the name "Danesfield" originated from the Danish adventurers who made an encampment here. Blending with history...
